Hello fellow CCA Members!

We've had a great second quarter with lots of fun events! We appreciate your continued support of the club as well as the effort to come to our events that we put a lot of work into. As fall approaches we'll be coming up to a lot of great events to take advantage of the cooler weather approaching, so keep your eyes peeled on the website/facebook page for the most up to date info on the next event.

Lastly, we would love to hear from any and all of you, so if you have any suggestions for events, would like to help make things happen for the club or would like to donate some time, don't hesitate to get a hold of any of us.
(info on the right)

Thanks as always for being amazing members of the club!
-Dan Archer

The Gorgeous BMW Z4 Concept Proves The Sports Car Isn't Dead

BMW broke all our hearts a little bit in 2014 when it said that the sports car market was dying. But with the whole Toyota-Supra partnership and now a sparkling new Z4 concept at Monterey Car Week, we feel some retribution coming for those hurtful words spoken in the past.

A full set of images of the new Z4 concept appeared online recently. They show a tremendously sleek and sharp BMW roadster and I can hardly contain myself.

See, after BMW said that really horrible thing in 2014, it made me wonder how it could still possibly push the whole “the ultimate driving machine” motto with a straight face. Yes, this Z4 is still just a concept, but I find hope in its low stance, snarling front spoiler and high-mounted tail lights.

We need this. We need more two-seater roadsters in the world.
